

From: Nicole Demas
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/7/02 9:32pm
Subject: Enough's enough

Microsoft has spent millions defending itself. When I think of the software applications that kind of money could have gone toward I find it insane. Let them do what they do best. The DOJ should concentrate on terrorists, organised crime families and all the undesirable elements who belong behind bars for life, not a company that can make our lives better, richer and more enjoyable.